Munich lawyer Dr. Michael Siegel (1882-1979) had complained to Munich Police Headquarters in early April 1933 when one of his clients was taken into protective custody. He had the legs of his trousers cut off and was led through Munich's inner streets barefoot with a board around his neck that read, "I will never complain to the police again!" As late as 1940, Siegel managed to flee to Peru where he died in 1979.
